Reports
* Supervisors Report none
* Chairman's Report Invitation to neighbors to visit Blonhaven was sent. None of the neighbors attended except Steve. Blonhaven plans to have clay birds. Want to have a supper club and liquor license. Have put in a kitchen. Steve had conversation with them.Steve told them none of this is fits the zoning.

* Brodhead discussing paid staffing for fire due to lack of volunteers. Paid on call $2 hour or paid on premise $16 per hour. Fire fighters cannot do EMS.
* Going around with Brodhead Fire Dept. about towns 1/3 portion on assessed values.
* Other Reports

Audience Communication Jane Jensen went to a data center meeting in Green County which was very informative There are already 53 data centers in WI.

Old Business

Roads/DPW Supervisors reviewed the bill. Lang and Risom have been nicely repaired. DPW filled Lyons Rd. potholes.

FEMA Dela can go ahead with the DDD with FEMA for mitigation even though it is a smaller amount than originally thought. Many hours have been put into this process and we still have to navigate the state disaster relief once FEMA is completed.

Data center resolutions Dela provided sample moratorium resolutions from several towns in Rock County for the board to consider for next meeting. Still need NDA and No TID resolutions.

New Business

Recommendations from P&Z on Draves and Powell rezones

Powells need a slight adjustment in the tail on the property.

Draves need a driveway easement. Hearings can be held at the regular November 9th meeting.
