COMPLAINT PROCESS

This form is the first step in the complaint process for issuing a citation for barking dogs or other forms of nuisance within the City of Clayton. Initially, the Clayton Police Department will issue a warning to the owner so they have a chance to correct the issue. If the issue continues, the next step will be to issue a citation to the owner. To issue a citation, the Clayton Police Department must receive signed written statements from two individuals (may be the same household) who are willing to go to court. These statements must be received within 90 days of the most recent warning. If more than 90 days elapses, the process may begin again. To file a written complaint, two witnesses should complete this form along with written, signed statements. Email, mail, or deliver the form and statements to the contact information above. Once received, an officer will respond to your residence as soon as possible.
