CITY OF GLEN COVE TO HOST FREE COMMUNITY CAREGIVER PRESENTATION

GLEN COVE, N.Y. — The City of Glen Cove Office of Senior Services will host a free Community Caregiver Presentation on Tuesday, September 29, from 6:00 to 7:00 p.m. at Glen Cove City Hall, 9 Glen Street.

The information session will help older adults and families learn about available community resources and prepare for important decisions involving care for themselves, a parent or a loved one.

“Families should not wait until a need arises to begin exploring care options and available resources,” said Mayor Pamela D. Panzenbeck. “Planning ahead and receiving expert guidance can make difficult decisions feel more manageable and give families greater confidence and peace of mind.”

“Caregiving decisions can feel overwhelming, especially when families are forced to make them during a crisis,” said Carolynn Eipel, President of the Sage Association. “This presentation allows residents to learn about available services, ask questions and prepare before those services are needed.”

Mayor Panzenbeck will be joined by elder law attorney Harold A. Bollaci, Esq., and representatives from local senior care, healthcare, nursing and rehabilitation organizations who will share expert advice and helpful resources.

The program is free and open to the public, including residents of neighboring communities. Entrance and parking are located at the rear of City Hall.
