

General Plan Steering Committee Application

Lewiston City is seeking residents interested in serving on the General Plan Steering Committee. This committee will help guide the future of our community by providing input on land use, housing, agriculture, infrastructure, transportation, and future growth.

Committee members will provide feedback and recommendations throughout the General Plan update process.

Committee expectations: Members should be prepared to serve for up to eight months, with meetings held approximately once a month or every other month. Meetings are expected to last less than two hours.

Applicants must reside within Lewiston City limits to be eligible for consideration.

Application period closes 30 October 2026.
