

Rocky Ripple Emergency Management

RREM

Inform • Educate • Train

Wildlife in the Neighborhood: Can we get along?

When: Saturday April 23, 10 a.m.

Where: Town Hall (930 West 54th Street)

Cost: Free!

You've seen them in Rocky Ripple—foxes, coyotes, raccoons, and opossums. They enjoy Rocky Ripple as much as we do, and for the same reasons: the river, the trees, and a good quality of life.

However, some question whether we can all live here together while others appreciate seeing them in their backyard.

To learn more about the wildlife in our neighborhood, Indiana Conservation Officer Jet Quillen will give a presentation on “nuisance” wildlife and discuss Marion

County's hunting and trapping laws.

Bring your questions!

Officer Quillen will save plenty of time to answer your questions.

Learn more about RREM by contacting Andy Hazel at ajhaze77@gmail.com.

Learn more about the Indiana Department of Natural Resources online at www.in.gov/dnr/.

Learn more about RREM at www.rockyripple.com.

Rocky Ripple Emergency Management

RREM

Inform • Educate • Train

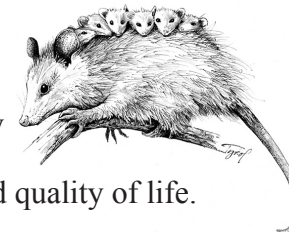

Wildlife in the Neighborhood: Can we get along?

When: Saturday April 23, 10 a.m.

Where: Town Hall (930 West 54th Street)

Cost: Free!

You've seen them in Rocky Ripple—foxes, coyotes, raccoons, and opossums. They enjoy Rocky Ripple as much as we do, and for the same reasons: the river, the trees, and a good quality of life.

However, some question whether we can all live here together while others appreciate seeing them in their backyard.

To learn more about the wildlife in our neighborhood, Indiana Conservation Officer Jet Quillen will give a presentation on “nuisance” wildlife and discuss Marion

County's hunting and trapping laws.

Bring your questions!

Officer Quillen will save plenty of time to answer your questions.

Learn more about RREM by contacting Andy Hazel at ajhaze77@gmail.com.

Learn more about the Indiana Department of Natural Resources online at www.in.gov/dnr/.

Learn more about RREM at www.rockyripple.com.