- i. No official or employee shall use or attempt to use his/her official position to secure special privileges or exemptions for him/herself or others except as may be otherwise provided by law.

(g) COMPENSATION, GIFT, REWARD OR GRATUITY

- i. No officer or employee of the Town shall directly solicit, receive or agree to receive any compensation, gift, reward or gratuity from any source for any matter or proceeding connected with or related to the duties of such officer or employee, unless otherwise provided for by law. This provision is not intended to restrict usual social amenities or to refer to unsubstantial advertising gifts. Compensation, gifts, reward or gratuities within the meaning of this subsection which practically cannot be returned shall immediately be turned over to the Town and be considered by it as Town property.

(h) CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION

- i. No official or employee shall, without prior formal authorization of the public body having jurisdiction, disclose any confidential information concerning any other official or employee, or any person, or any property or governmental affairs of the municipality.

(i) WHETHER OR NOT IT SHALL INVOLVE DISCLOSURE

- i. No official or employee shall use or permit the use of any such confidential information to advance the financial or personal interest of him/herself or any other person

(j) FINANCIAL GAIN

- i. No official or employee may use his/her public position or office to obtain financial gain or anything of substantial value for the private benefit of him/herself or his/her immediate family, or for an organization with which he/she is associated.

(k) PROHIBITION ON RECEIPT OF GOODS OR SERVICES

- i. No person may offer or give to an official or employee, directly or indirectly, and no official or employee may solicit or accept from any person, directly or indirectly, anything of value if it could reasonably be expected to influence the official's or employee's vote, official actions or judgment, or could reasonably be considered as a reward for any official action or inaction on the part of the official or employee. This subsection does not prohibit an official or employee from engaging in outside employment.

(l) MISUSE OF PUBLIC POSITION

- i. No official or employee may use or attempt to use his/her public position to influence or gain unlawful benefits, advantages or privileges for him/her or others.

(m) DISCLOSURE OF FINANCIAL INTEREST

- i. No official, employee, member of an official's or employee's immediate family, nor any organization with which the official, employee or a member of the official's or employee's immediate family owns or controls at least 10% of the outstanding equity, voting rights, or outstanding indebtedness may enter into any contract or lease involving a payment or payments of more than three-thousand ($3,000) dollars within a twelve (12) month period, in whole or in part derived from Town funds unless the official or employee has first made written disclosure of the nature and extent of such relationship of interest to the Town Board. Any contract or lease entered into in violation of this subsection may be voided by the Town.

6) STATEMENT OF ECONOMIC INTERESTS

- (a) Every candidate for elected office and every elected official shall file with the Town Clerk a statement of economic interests in the form and manner prescribed by the Town Board provided, however, said statement shall be in substantial conformity with the requirements of Section 19.44, Wisconsin Statutes.

7) ETHICS OPINION FROM TOWN ATTORNEY

- (a) Any Town Board member or any elected or appointed Town employee may ask the Town Attorney, in writing, to provide an ethical opinion regarding any issue that is specifically related to this Section. By publication of this Section, any person requesting such an opinion is hereby given notice that the Town Attorney represents the Town Board and not the requesting party, and that any such communications are confidential as to any other person or entity with the exception of the Town Board. Any request for an ethics opinion, or any given by the Town Attorney in response to such a request, shall be made in a timely manner, in writing, and shall simultaneously be provided to the requester and to the Town Board. Any such communication to the Town Board shall be presumed for all purposes to be a confidential attorney-client privileged communication, pursuant to SCR 20:1.6 and Section 905.03, Wisconsin Statutes, between the Town Attorney and the Town Board. The Town Attorney shall not be deemed for any purposes or proceedings to represent the person or entity requesting an ethical opinion, due to the Town Attorney receiving such a request, or responding to such a request. The Town Board shall not be obligated to act in accordance with any ethical opinion, but any such opinion shall only be considered advisory. Any individual or entity authorized herein may request an ethical opinion, but only during such time as that individual is elected or appointed to office. Any information obtained by the Town Attorney in order to prepare an ethics opinion shall be confidential in accordance with the limitations herein.

Revised 05.18.23

- (b) It is prima facie evidence of intent to comply with this section, or any ordinance enacted under this section, when a person or entity refers a matter to the Town Attorney and abides by the opinion so given, if the material facts are as stated in the request.
- (c) The Town Attorney may, with the consent of the Town Board, make public any information related to an ethics opinion, including the identity of the requesting party. The consent of the party requesting an opinion shall not be required to make that party's identity public, nor shall it be required to make the ethical opinion public.
- (d) The Town Attorney may refuse to respond to any request for an ethics opinion if the Town Attorney determines, in his/her sole discretion, that providing a response is not in the best legal interests of the Town of Delavan.

8) PENALTIES

- (a) Any person who shall violate Subsection 6 above may be subjected to the Clerk having that person's name omitted from the ballot if the person is a candidate for office or if the person is an elected official, the Treasurer may withhold the salary and expenses of that person until that person complies with Subsection 6 above.

- (b) Any person who shall violate Section 1.08 (except 1.08(6)) shall be subject to a penalty as provided in Section 25.04 of this Municipal Code.

Revised February 2003
