

After an Application is Filed

Before an application has been filed, there is little input to provide. When filed, the PSC will have to prepare an Environmental Assessment (EA) and make a determination on whether to do an Environmental Impact Statement (EIS). Citizens are able to comment on the EIS. There will be a public hearing, for anyone to comment on whatever they would like. Those comments go directly on to the hearing record for the Commissioners to review.