

TOWN OF NORWICH

TOWN HALL

Hale Street Extension
Norwich, New York 13815

Local Law No. 2 of 1990

UNREGISTERED VEHICLE ORDINANCE

No individual, firm, partnership, company, corporation or organization of any kind in charge or in control of any property within the town, whether as owner, occupant, tenant or otherwise, which is not a licensed motor vehicle dealer or registered repair shop shall allow more than one motor vehicle, as such terms are defined in the Vehicle and Traffic Law of the State of New York, to be stored or remain on their premises unregistered for more than seven (7) calendar days after notice is given to such person to remove or dispose of such vehicle by the Town Board, Town Constable or other duly appointed officer.

This ordinance shall not apply to a vehicle within a enclosed building or a vehicle on the premises of a licensed junkyard or dismantling facility operated in a lawful place and manner.

An appearance ticket for a violation of this ordinance may be issued by any police officer or other duly appointed peace officer.

A violation of this ordinance shall be considered a violation and shall be punishable by a fine not exceeding Two Hundred and Fifty ($250.00) Dollars or in the case of a corporation, not exceeding Five Hundred ($500.00) Dollars. Each day such violation is committed or permitted to continue shall constitute a separate offense and shall be punishable as such hereunder.

In addition to the above penalties the Town Board may maintain an action or proceeding in the name of the Town to compel compliance with this Local Law. Any violation of this Local Law or any of its provisions may be restrained by injunction in a court of competent jurisdiction.
