REPORTS

Public Safety – Commissioner Fox

- Said that our full time deputy has been 'radar control' certified.

Buildings– Commissioner Drillick

- Nothing to report.

Public Works& Parks- Commissioner Steiermann

- Nothing to report.

Finance– Vice Mayor Deighton

- Review by the Finance Committee of receipts and expenses, revealed the Town was not earning the budgeted 3% interest revenue; we will discuss with Fifth Third Bank and Florida League of Cities to see what options they could offer.

Mayor Simons

- Reported on the recent Big-C meeting; guest speaker Brian McClure, meteorologist spoke of the upcoming hurricane season.

Town Clerk

- Discount tickets are still available for the June 14 Rays game; discount tickets cost $30.

Town Attorney

- Attorney fees under our coverage by Florida League of Cities will not continue for the second count in the Bryan Hughes case. The complaint for breach of contract will have to be defended by the Town. Attorney Salzman suggested that Board assign the defense to another attorney; proposal is to leave the matter with Jim Yacavone, since he handled the initial defense. Consensus by the board to have Attorney Salzman contact Jim Yacavone and then report back to the Board at the May 19 meeting.
- Attorney said on the short-term rental issue, he will write a letter to the two resident's attorney informing her that after a review of the Town code and Amadio's interpretation letter, they are not grandfathered for short-term rental.

No Boards or Committee reports.
