Unfinished Business

1. Town Park Playground

Discussion began with Chairperson Tiffany Terracciano summarizing and reviewing the two proposals that had been submitted to the Park Board in response to the RFP, noting concerns the vendors had with the timeline and the budget. Various Park Board Members voiced concerns over the proposals as the proposals lacked playground equipment designed for the intended 5–12-year-old age group. Additional concerns included type of equipment, placement of equipment, and size of structure. Additional discussion regarding the drainage issues of the playground location occurred. Redington Beach Town Clerk, Missy Clarke, reported that Mayor Will approved extending the timeline due to current supply chain issues. Motion to vote to reject all current
