UNFINISHED BUSINESS

1. July 4th Parade recap-discuss ways to have better outcome of people watching and participating

Feedback-Great time, went too fast, need some music to get people's attention.

Time was too early?

Look into-Add signs for our events to budget. EXP.-Golf Cart Parade with insert for event date. To save on different signs. 10a start.

Add a contest component to the event for carts and also for homes to decorate porch. (Judging houses and carts)

Add popsicles or some kind of ending to the event.

Add a blowhorn to the budget for all events.

Safety of carts-Board Member safety briefing for each cart.

Overall- event was a great success.

2. Storage- List of items needed for storage

Chuck Goldstein will email Tiffany the list. Share storage area with RPBOA.

3. Pickleball Court Update

Chuck-Bid from Nash Courts- Best Bid-Court is uneven and cracked and can't be filled. Court is currently too small. Cost is $68,000. Not including lights. Can't put lights in the park because the park closes at sunset.

Commissioner Cariello filled the board on the initial thoughts of pickle ball court. Extend the current basketball court. Court would not be regulation size.

Mike will reach out to Largo Parks Dept. to see what contractors they used for tennis courts.

Chuck & Mike will brainstorm ideas for the next meeting. Contact some other contractors, look at proposal from Nash when we receive it.

4. Playground Timeline Update

Tiffany contacted the contractor to make sure the time frame for starting is Mid-November and equipment ship date is December 9th. Demolishing the old playground equipment a few weeks prior to equipment arriving.

Tiffany will follow up with the contractor about start dates and securing the area for construction. The Christmas lights display may have to be moved to a different park?

5. Memorial Wall- publicity for and pricing options

Location is Beach Park by shower area. Do we want to have one at Moon Park as an option?

Where does money go for the money raised from purchasing the plaque?

Options for name. Redington Beach Community Walls

Tiffany will confirm with Missy to see what process is with the brick.

Next meeting what prices are.

Next meeting the board will brainstorm ideas and pick names at the next meeting.

6. Mardi Gras Event- confirm date and details

Date-Tiffany will ask Missy if the Board selected a date.
