Final Reading - Ordinance 2022-14

ORDINANCE NO. 2022-14

AN ORDINANCE OF THE TOWN OF REDINGTON BEACH, FLORIDA, AMENDING § 17-1 OF THE TOWN CODE (SIGN DEFINITIONS) TO REVISE THE DEFINITION OF PORTABLE SIGN; MAKING RELATED FINDINGS; PROVIDING FOR CODIFICATION, SEVERABILITY, AND FOR AN EFFECTIVE DATE.

WHEREAS, the Town adopted its current sign code on February 17th 2021 via Ordinance 2019-07; and

WHEREAS, the sign code defines “portable sign” as any sign, banner, or poster that is not permanently attached to the ground or to a structure that is attached to the ground or a sign capable of being transported, including, but not limited to, signs designed to be transported by means of wheels or carried by a person, and signs converted to an A-Frame sign or a T-frame sign. For purposes of this chapter, a cold air inflatable sign shall be considered to be a portable sign”; and

WHEREAS, the Town has become aware of the case of LaCroix v. Town of Fort Myers Beach, 38 F.4th 941 (11th Cir. 2022), wherein the federal appeals court determined that a similarly-worded provision had the effect of preventing citizens from carrying signs on their persons in traditional public areas such as sidewalks and parks to engage in their First Amendment rights; and

WHEREAS, in adopting similar model code language, the Town Commission did not, and does not intend to impinge on such rights; and

WHEREAS, since adopting its sign code the Town has never cited any person for carrying a sign as a means of engaging in First Amendment rights, and the Town is committed to never do so; and

WHEREAS, the Town Commission has asked the Town Attorney to revise the definition of “portable sign” to ensure it cannot be interpreted or applied in the manner described in the LaCroix case, and to ensure instead that it will affirm a citizen’s right to carry a sign expressing any non-commercial speech the citizen desires to express; and

WHEREAS, the Commission finds that it is in the interest of the Town and its citizens to adopt the code amendment set forth in this Ordinance.

NOW, THEREFORE BE IT ORDAINED by the Board of Commissioners of the Town of Redington Beach, Florida, that:

Section 1. the definition of Portable Sign in § 17-1 of the Redington Beach Town Code is hereby amended to read as follows:

Sec. 17-1. – Definitions.

Portable sign means any sign, banner, or poster that is not permanently attached to the ground or to a structure that is attached to the ground or a sign capable of being transported, including, but not limited to, signs designed to be transported by means of wheels ~~or carried by a person~~, and signs converted to an A-Frame sign or a T-frame sign. For purposes of this chapter, a cold air inflatable sign shall be considered to be a portable sign. A sign not bearing a commercial message which is carried by a person (whether worn or held by hand) shall not be considered a portable sign, and such signs shall be permitted to be carried in any location such person is otherwise lawfully allowed to be present, including on the Town's sidewalks and parks.

Section 2. For purposes of codification of any existing section of the Redington Beach Code herein amended, words underlined represent additions to original text, words ~~stricken~~ are deletions from the original text, and words neither underlined nor stricken remain unchanged.

Section 3. If any section, subsection, sentence, clause, provision or word of this Ordinance is held unconstitutional or otherwise legally invalid, same shall be severable and the remainder of this Ordinance shall not be affected by such invalidity, such that any remainder of the Ordinance shall withstand any severed provision, as the Board of Commissioners would have adopted the Ordinance and its regulatory scheme even absent the invalid part.

Section 4. The Codifier shall codify the substantive amendments to the Redington Beach Town Code contained in Section 1 of this Ordinance as provided for therein, and shall not codify the exordial clauses nor any other sections not designated for codification.

Section 5. Pursuant to Florida Statutes § 166.041(4), this Ordinance shall take effect immediately upon adoption.

ADOPTED ON FIRST READING on the 7th day of December, 2022, by the Board of Commissioners of the Town of Redington Beach, Florida.

Final Reading - Ordinance 2022-15

ORDINANCE NO. 2022-15

AN ORDINANCE OF THE TOWN OF REDINGTON BEACH, FLORIDA, CREATING A NEW ARTICLE VIII (SHORT-TERM RENTAL REGULATION) OF CHAPTER 12 (NUISANCES) OF THE TOWN CODE TO ESTABLISH A COMPREHENSIVE REGULATORY SCHEME REGARDING THE MARKETING AND OPERATION OF SHORT-TERM RENTALS WITHIN THE TOWN; CREATING CONDUCT AND REPORTING REQUIREMENTS FOR HOSTING PLATFORMS, OWNERS AND OWNER AGENTS, AND GUESTS; CREATING AN APPLICATION AND ENFORCEMENT PROCESS; PROVIDING FOR PENALTIES FOR VIOLATION; CREATING RELATED DEFINITIONS; MAKING RELATED FINDINGS; PROVIDING FOR CODIFICATION, SEVERABILITY, AND FOR AN EFFECTIVE DATE.

WHEREAS, since the founding of the Town of Redington Beach, the Town's zoning regulations have provided that the single-family homes in zoning districts 2 and 3 were "zoned for the construction of single-family dwelling houses and the use of such dwelling houses for single-family residential purposes"; and

WHEREAS, for decades, the Town and its residents understood this language to preclude treating homes in the Town as mini hotels; and

WHEREAS, in the early 2000s, the Town discovered that some owners were occasionally renting their homes to vacationers for short terms; and

WHEREAS, to clarify that the Town's then-existing zoning did not allow for this kind of renting, on February 6th 2008, the Town Commission adopted Ordinance 08-01; and

WHEREAS, Ordinance 08-01 clarified that any use which was not specifically identified as being a permitted/accessory use or a special exception was a prohibited use, expressly clarified that "short-term rental" was a form of prohibited use under the code, and defined "short-term rental" as a rental for a period of less than six months; and

WHEREAS, § 20 of the Town's Charter provides:

No amendment, repeal or change whatsoever or exception of any kind to those certain zoning ordinances of the Town of Redington Beach restricting, providing and establishing certain zones and zoning of the Town of Redington Beach, Florida shall be made or affected unless a resolution is duly passed and adopted by the Board of Commissioners of the Town of Redington Beach proposing such change and calling for an election, either at a special or general election or other specific election, whereupon, all of the registered voters of the Town shall vote upon the question for affirmation or approval or disaffirmation or disapproval of the resolution and the proposition contained therein respecting any amendment, repeal or change of any nature in the present zoning laws and ordinances of the Town of Redington Beach. Amendment, repeal or change or any exception of any kind must be approved by at least two-thirds (2/3) of the voters voting on such amendment, repeal or change; and

WHEREAS, when the Town adopted Ordinance 08-01, it did not conduct a referendum based on advice of counsel that no referendum was needed since the ordinance did not repeal or change any zoning category and merely clarified the pre-existing code that short-term renting was never allowed; and

WHEREAS, in 2011, the Florida Legislature adopted Florida Statutes § 509.032(7)(b) which preempted local governments from banning the short-term renting of residential housing, but which allowed ordinances which were in place prior to June 1st 2011 to remain in place; and

WHEREAS, Florida Statutes § 509.032(7)(b) provides that a local law, ordinance, or regulation may not prohibit vacation rentals, or regulate the duration of frequency of rental of vacation rentals; and

WHEREAS, since the Town believed its 2008 ordinance was effective, it did not believe the adoption of this statute impacted it; and

WHEREAS, around 2014, the Town learned of instances wherein owners of residential properties in the Town were short-term renting their homes to vacationers; and

WHEREAS, the Town, citing its zoning code, sought enforcement against these owners; and

WHEREAS, in two court cases in the 2015-16 period, the circuit court for Pinellas County ruled that while the Town's code did preclude short-term renting, it didn't clearly do so until 2008, and since the owners of these properties proved they were renting prior to that date, those owners could continue renting under a "grandfathering" theory; and

WHEREAS, while the referendum question was not raised in these cases, the Town took from these opinions that the courts were recognizing the validity of the code since grandfathering would not be required if the code were not effective; and

WHEREAS, some property owners in the Town nevertheless continued to question the Town's right to enforce Ordinance 08-01 due to the fact a referendum had not been conducted; and

WHEREAS, to quell this doubt, the Commission authorized the Town Attorney to file a declaratory judgment suit, case no.: 19-1290-CI-20 against one such property; and

WHEREAS, the suit asked the court to declare that Ordinance 08-01 was valid and no referendum was needed as the Ordinance was only clarifying what the Town believed had always been the case; and

WHEREAS, the circuit court's final declaration found that the Town should have conducted a referendum under the Charter language, and that since it did not, the ordinance was unenforceable; and

WHEREAS, the Town Commission appealed this declaration on December 2nd 2021, but also scheduled a referendum vote of the residents for them to ratify or reject the terms of Ordinance 08-01 so as to meet the criticism of the court's declaratory judgment; and

WHEREAS, on March 15th 2022, 86% of the Town's residents voted to ratify the 2008 ordinance; and

WHEREAS, the Town requested that the appeals court judicially recognize the outcome of the referendum vote; and

WHEREAS, on November 16th 2022, the appeals court denied the Town's motion for judicial recognition of the referendum results, and also affirmed the lower court's declaratory judgment without opinion; and

WHEREAS, since the referendum had not occurred as of the date the lower court ruled in the Town's initial declaratory judgment action, and since the appellate court refused to recognize the outcome of the referendum which had occurred during the pendency of the appeal, the Town has filed a new declaratory judgment action asking for a declaration that the referendum vote satisfied the Charter requirement, and that Ordinance 08-01 is therefore enforceable; and

WHEREAS, since this new suit will likely take some months to be decided, with a subsequent appeal likely, and since currently the Town must deal with the initial declaratory judgment that Ordinance 08-01 cannot be enforced, the Town must provide interim regulations to govern the operation of short-term rentals within the Town so as to preserve to the fullest extent possible the traditional residential, non-commercial nature of the Town of Redington Beach; and

WHEREAS, Florida Statutes § 509.013, provides a distinction between "transient public lodging establishments" which are rented, or advertised or held out for rental to guests more than three (3) times in a calendar year for periods of less than thirty (30) days or one (1) calendar month, whichever is less; and "nontransient public lodging establishments" which are rented, or advertised or held out for rental to guests for periods of at least thirty (30) days or one (1) calendar month, whichever is less; and

WHEREAS, Florida Statutes § 509.242(1)(c) further provides for a subset of transient public lodging establishments, called "vacation rental" which is any unit or group of units in a condominium or cooperative or any individually or collectively owned single-family, two-family, three-family or four-family house or dwelling unit that is also a transient public lodging establishment, but that is not a timeshare project; and

WHEREAS, it is not the intent of this Ordinance to prohibit vacation rentals, nor to regulate the duration or frequency of rental of vacation rentals but rather it is the intent of this Ordinance to regulate vacation rentals as defined by Florida Statutes, which are located in the Town and which are being operated due to the court's declaratory judgment in case no.: 19-1290-CI-20; and

WHEREAS, it is also not the intent of this Ordinance to abandon the Town's position that, in keeping with the court's declaration in case no.: 19-1290-CI-20 that Ordinance 08-01 could not be enforced without a referendum, and that now that a referendum has been conducted, the court should rule that the Town has the authority to enforce Ordinance 08-01; and

WHEREAS, the Town Commission finds that while the Florida Legislature has equated short-term "vacation" renting with traditional long-term occupation of a residence by families who actually live, work, recreate, and raise families in the community, the reality is that the practice of short-term “vacation” renting of residential homes situated next to and among homes occupied by actual families who live in those homes creates negative effects suffered by those families; and

WHEREAS, those negative effects engaged in by vacation renters include regular noise disturbances, vandalism, trespass, public urination, and failure to obey parking, solid waste, and litter rules; and

WHEREAS, even if a home is only rented to a limited number of “vacation renters”, it is not uncommon for those renters to then invite others to the property who are not on the official guest list, which then causes more cars to be drawn into the residential neighborhood taking up valuable parking resources and which results in occupancy of a home well above the number of persons the home is designed to accommodate; and

WHEREAS, residents residing within their residential dwellings are inherently familiar with the local surroundings, local weather disturbances, local hurricane evacuation plans, and means of egress from their residential dwellings, thereby minimizing potential risks to themselves and their families; and

WHEREAS, in contrast, transient occupants of vacation rentals, due to their transient nature, are typically not familiar with local surroundings, local weather disturbances, local hurricane evacuation plans, and means of egress from the vacation rentals in which they are staying, thereby increasing potential risks to themselves and their families, and putting an additional burden on, and potentially putting at risk, emergency personnel in the event of an emergency situation; and

WHEREAS, a residential dwelling is typically the single largest investment a family will make with the residents of the residential dwelling desiring the tranquility and peaceful enjoyment of their neighborhood without excessive noise and increased parking issues and traffic congestion caused by transient occupants of vacation rentals; and

WHEREAS, according to census data, the median property value in the Town was $516,000 in 2020, 2.25 times larger than the national average of $229,800; and

WHEREAS, between 2019 and 2020 the median property value in the Town increased 13% from $456,700 to $516,000; and

WHEREAS, the homeownership rate in the Town is 88.9%, which is higher than the national average of 64.4%, and there are an average of two persons per household in the Town; and

WHEREAS, vacation rental use and longer term residential use and ownership are generally incompatible, due to rapid turnover associated with short term vacation residential use and its disruptive effect on the peaceful use and enjoyment of residential areas; and

WHEREAS, given the existence of Ordinance 08-01 in the Town Code, and the lack of legal authority undermining the historical state of Town law that short-term renting was not allowed in Districts 2 and 3, the primary reasonable investment-backed expectation of owners of residential dwelling units in those districts is the use that is a residence and not a vacation rental; and

WHEREAS, vacation renting is a use that is more in the nature of, and is best accommodated by, hotels and motels; and

WHEREAS, the regulation of vacation rentals will contribute to the stability of the Town's existing residential neighborhoods; and

WHEREAS, the regulation of vacation rentals will protect visitors to the Town by assuring that fire and safety inspections are periodically conducted, that they receive necessary information about the dwelling which they have rented, and notifying them of the owner of the dwellings obligation to provide for their safety and welfare; and

WHEREAS, even though the Florida Legislature's assessment that vacation rental use is equivalent to normal occupancy by families who actually live in the Town, vacation rental properties are often marketed as, and used for, large events such as weddings, reunions, corporate retreats, and birthday celebrations; and

WHEREAS, such events are actually more akin to commercial businesses which, in addition to drawing more cars and people to a property and structure which were not designed to regularly accommodate such events, also attracts party buses, bands, DJs and catering vehicles; and

WHEREAS, the experience of residents when attempting to confront vacation renters often results in hostile responses from vacation renters who are not invested in the community and therefore do not care about the impact their conduct has on occupants of homes which are proximate to the short-term rental at which they are staying; and

WHEREAS, these negative interactions, and the underlying conduct causing the interactions, are often caused in part by vacationers who are consuming alcohol; and

WHEREAS, many of the worst violations of law or Town code, and many of the worst negative interactions between residents and vacationing renters, occurs in the evening, late at night, or during the weekend when the Town's limited code enforcement resources are not present to respond; and

WHEREAS, until the Town's new declaratory judgment suit can be finally determined by the courts so as to confirm the Town's authority to enforce Ordinance 08-01, and in light of the existing declaration in case no.: 19-1290-CI-20 that Ordinance 08-01 could not be enforced, the Town Commission finds that it is in the best interests of the Town and its residents that to the extent short-term renting must be allowed due to the declaration in case no.: 19-1290-CI-20, substantial regulations on short-term renting must be adopted to protect the quality of life of the Town's residents; and

WHEREAS, the regulations adopted by this Ordinance will result in additional costs to the Town related to the administration of a registration and inspection process, as well as to the need for additional code enforcement resources including both as to added coverage by deputies as well as the code enforcement magistrate process; and

WHEREAS, Florida Statutes § 166.221 provides that a municipality may levy reasonable business, professional, and occupational regulatory fees, commensurate with the cost of the regulatory activity, including consumer protection, on such classes of businesses, professions, and occupations, the regulation of which has not been preempted by the state or a county pursuant to a county charter; and

WHEREAS, the Commission finds that it is necessary to create a registration fee for short-term rental properties in the Town which will be periodically established by the Commission, and which will be commensurate with the cost to the Town of the regulatory activities required by this Ordinance; and

WHEREAS, since the limited dollar amounts established by the Florida Legislature in Florida Statutes Chapter 162 related to normal code enforcement fines may be insufficient to serve as a deterrent to a vacation rental unit owner's allowing or failing to correct repeated events of conduct which violate the provisions of this Ordinance, the Commission finds that the a mechanism should be created wherein repeated violations will result in the loss, after required due process is provided, of the ability of a vacation rental property to be used for vacation rental purposes for a period of time; and

WHEREAS, the regulation of vacation rentals is necessary in order to protect the public health, safety and welfare of the Town, its residents and its visitors; and

WHEREAS, the Commission finds that it is in the interest of the Town and its citizens to adopt the regulatory provisions set forth in this Ordinance.

NOW, THEREFORE BE IT ORDAINED by the Board of Commissioners of the Town of Redington Beach, Florida, that:

Section 1. A new Article VIII (Short Term Rental Regulations) of Chapter 12 (Nuisances)

The vacation rental owner may change the designation of agent at any time through the filing of a new form and the payment of an administrative fee in an amount as set by resolution by the town commission. DIVISION 2. VACATION RENTAL REGISTRATION

Sec. 12-160. – Registration required.

As of February 1st 2023, a vacation rental registration shall be required to operate a vacation rental within the town, utilizing forms promulgated by the town. The town clerk may extend the date that such registration is required by notice on the town's website should the town not publish forms and fees for registration by January 20th 2023. Prior to the issuance of a vacation rental registration, the responsible person has the affirmative duty to ensure that the dwelling unit and property in or on which the vacation rental is or will be located, is in full compliance with the town code, Florida Statutes Chapter 509, the Florida Building Code, the Florida Administrative Code, and the Florida Fire Prevention Code. A separate vacation rental registration shall be required for each vacation rental. The operation of a vacation rental without registration after the date registration is required shall be a violation of this article, except in the instance of providing accommodations to fulfill a rental contract existing as of December 21st 2022.

Sec. 12-161. – Vacation rental registration.

- (a) A vacation rental registration application must be filed and signed by the vacation rental owner. An owner may apply through an agent, but in such case, the owner must execute a separate affidavit attesting that the agent is authorized by the owner to complete and submit the application on the owner's behalf. Such affidavit must be submitted along with the application.
- (b) A registration application must be submitted by using the forms promulgated by the town for such purpose. Application forms shall be submitted to the town clerk for processing. All applicable registration and inspection fees established by the town shall be submitted at the same time as the application form.
- (c) A registration application shall, at a minimum, include the following:

- (5) A copy of the vacation rental's current and active certificate of registration with the Florida Department of Revenue and Pinellas County for sales and tourist development tax collection, respectively, if the registrant has such certificates or accounts; unless a peer-to-peer platform entity through which the vacation rental is booked will be remitting all such taxes associated with the vacation rental on the responsible person's behalf;
- (6) Business tax receipt from the town, in accordance with article III of chapter 20 of the code;
- (7) Statement attesting to the number of bedrooms and paved off-street parking spaces available on the property with affirmation that "no on-street parking" will be allowed and that the parking plan submitted by the owner will be followed by the owner's guests;

The plan shall depict and identify the outer boundaries of the property, and all structures, docks, sheds, paved parking areas, pools, spas, hot tubs, and fencing. For purposes of the plan, off-street parking spaces allowed by the code to be used for parking shall be delineated so as to enable a fixed count of the number of spaces provided.
- (9) Interior structural plan by floor. An interior structural plan of the vacation rental structure by floor, produced by an architect, engineer or professional draftsman, shall be provided. The interior structural plan shall depict a floor layout identifying all spaces on each floor, and shall label each space as a bedroom (as defined by this article), bathroom, kitchen, office, den, dining room, family room, sunroom, closet, utility room, laundry room, hallway, stairway, or any other spatial element of the structure.
- (10) Acknowledgement signed by the owner, or owner's authorized agent, acknowledging and agreeing to initial and ongoing compliance with this article and all other town codes and federal, state and county laws which are applicable to the owner's ownership, maintenance, repair, modification, and use of the vacation rental property;
- (11) An application must provide the phone number associated with the landline telephone required by § 12-176;

 - (13) A narrative parking plan acknowledging that no more than three passenger vehicles (cars, pickup trucks, wagons, suvs) may park on the vacation rental property at any one time, and outlining where vehicles will be parked and how guests will be made aware of the parking rules, including the prohibition against guests parking off-site;
 - (14) A copy of the conduct rules adopted by the owner which will apply to the conduct of the owner's guests, and a narrative statement setting forth how the owner will ensure each guest are provided a copy of, and made to acknowledge, these rules; and
 - (15) A statement attesting that the owner has made all structural revisions to the vacation rental property, and all operational policies have been adopted to ensure compliance with the Americans with Disabilities Act's requirements for places of public accommodation.
 - (16) A narrative statement setting forth how the owner will ensure each guest is provided a copy of, and make to acknowledge, the town rules which must be disclosed to each guest, including the town's rules related to solid waste storage, setting out solid waste on correct collection days, the noise restrictions associated with the vacation rental's use, the parking restrictions, and the quiet hour rules, all as are set forth in this article and as otherwise set forth in the code.
- (d) Forms must be fully completed, incomplete applications will not be processed. The town clerk does not have discretion to deny a registration application which is found to be complete, and which is found to satisfy the requirements of this article. If a registration application is found by the town clerk to be incomplete, or that the information submitted (such as the parking plan) does not satisfy a requirement of this article, the clerk will notify the applicant in writing setting forth the deficiencies to be addressed. The applicant will then be allowed fifteen (15) days to provide any missing information or to otherwise revise the application to make it compliant with this article. If an applicant disagrees with a determination of the clerk as to the completeness of an application, or an application's compliance with this article, the applicant may, within fifteen (15) days of the date of the clerk's determination, file a written appeal to the town commission. The appeal must set forth the specific factual and legal reasons supporting the applicant's appeal.

Sec. 12-162. – Modification/change of ownership of vacation rental registration.

- (a) An amendment of a vacation rental registration application and affidavit of compliance shall be required, with payment of the appropriate fee, in the event that any of the following changes to the vacation rental are proposed:
- (1) An amendment to the owner's safety or parking plans.
 - (2) An amendment to the owner's conduct rules to be followed by guests.
 - (3) A change in the designated responsible person.

Such amendments will be approved by the town upon a finding by the town clerk that the changed plans, rules or designation otherwise continue to comply with the requirements of this article.

- (b) A change of ownership, including transfers between legal entities under common control, shall require a new application, and shall be accompanied by the applicable application fee.

Sec. 12-163. – Duration of vacation rental registration.

A vacation rental registration shall be valid for one (1) year from the date the application is approved. An approved registration shall constitute permission to operate the vacation rental.

Sec. 12-164. – Renewal of vacation rental registration.

A vacation rental owner must renew its registration annually prior to the expiration date of the previous vacation rental registration and is subject to an annual inspection and applicable fees.

Sec. 12-165. – Inspection of vacation rentals.

- (a) To verify compliance with the Florida Building, Fire, and Life Safety Codes applicable to the vacation rental property, and to verify the interior and exterior plans submitted with the application accurately depict the conditions on and in the property, and to ensure all required safety equipment such as phone line and fire extinguishers are properly installed, and to verify the guest conduct information is properly displayed, each vacation rental shall, in conjunction with its initial or annual renewal application, be inspected by the town building official. The town will endeavor to coordinate an inspection date with the owner and complete the inspection process prior to the expiration of an existing registration period. However, only as to renewing applicants, if the availability of the building official causes a delay in that process, the town clerk is authorized to allow the vacation rental to continue operating on an interim basis for up to thirty days. Newly-registering vacation rentals may not begin operating until the application process, including the associated inspection, is completed.
- (b) If instances of noncompliance are found, all such instances of noncompliance shall be handled either as violations of the Florida Building, Fire, or Life Safety Codes are otherwise handled by the building official under state law and town code or, if the violation is not related to a code under the jurisdiction of the building official, it shall be referred to code enforcement and handled as a code violation.
- (c) Initial and annual inspections required under this section shall be made by the building official through coordinating an appointment with the vacation rental owner or the owner's authorized agent or responsible person. If an inspection date is set but the building official is, due to an action or inaction of the owner, the responsible person, or occupant, denied or otherwise unable to make entry onto the property to conduct the inspection on the date set, the owner must re-apply for an inspection and pay an additional inspection fee. The re-inspection fee shall be paid prior to scheduling the re-inspection. Failure of a vacation rental owner agent, or responsible person, as applicable, to make the vacation rental available for an inspection within twenty (20) days after notification by the town in writing that the town is ready to conduct the annual inspection shall constitute a violation of this article. Such violation shall continue until the inspection is accomplished.

Sec. 12-166. – Sale of vacation rental property.

When title to a registered vacation rental is transferred due to sale or otherwise, the new owner shall file a new registration application within thirty (30) days from the date title changes to the new owner. A new owner may not continue to operate a currently-registered vacation rental if an application is not filed within the thirty-day period and any existing approved registration will expire on the thirty-first day from the date title changes.

Sec. 12-167. – Vested rights; waiver; estoppel.

Approval of a vacation rental registration shall not be construed to establish any vested rights or entitle the registered vacation rental to any rights under the theory of estoppel, nor shall it be construed as a waiver of any other requirements contained in the town code. It is not an approval of any other code requirement outside this article. The registration of a vacation rental is not an approval of a use or activity that would otherwise be illegal under state law or the Florida Building, Fire, or Life Safety Codes, or a violation of the code. In the event the town regains, either through judicial or legislative action, the authority to enforce Ordinance 08-01, the town will terminate all vacation rental registrations. In that event, the town will coordinate with registered owners to develop an orderly cessation of operations.

Sec. 12-168. – False information.

It shall be unlawful for any person to give any false or misleading information in connection with any application for registration, modification, or renewal of a vacation rental as required by this article. Vacation rental applications shall be sworn to under penalty of perjury. Any false statements made in an application shall be a basis for the revocation of any license issued pursuant to such application.

Sec. 12-169. – Duties of vacation rental owner and responsible person.

- (a) Every vacation rental owner, or responsible person if one is designated, shall be available by phone at the listed phone number twenty-four (24) hours a day, seven (7) days a week, including holidays, to respond to contact by the sheriff's department, fire department, or other emergency personnel, or by any other regulatory personnel of the town. Failure of the vacation rental owner or responsible person to comply with this requirement shall be a violation of this article.
- (b) Responsible person. If a vacation rental owner does not directly manage the registered vacation rental property owned by the owner, the owner shall designate a responsible person.
 - (1) The responsible person shall be available twenty-four (24) hours per day, seven (7) days a week, for the purpose of promptly responding to complaints regarding conduct or behavior of vacation rental occupants or alleged violations of these regulations. This person must have authority to immediately address and take affirmative action, within one (1) hour of notice from the town, on violations concerning life-safety, noise, violent confrontations, trespassing, capacity limit violations, and parking violations. A record shall be kept by the town of the complaint and the responsible person's response.
 - (2) An owner may change his/her/its designation of a responsible person temporarily, up to thirty (30) cumulative days during any consecutive twelve (12) month period, or permanently; however, there shall only be one designated responsible person for each vacation rental property at any given time.
 - (3) It shall be the sole responsibility of the property owner to appoint a reliable responsible person and to inform the manager of his or her correct mailing address. Failure to do so shall not be a defense to a violation of this section. Service of notice on the responsible person shall be deemed service of notice on the property owner, guest, occupant and violator.

- (c) A vacation rental owner or responsible person is responsible for ensuring sexual offenders/predators as defined in Florida Statutes §§ 775.21, 943.0435, 944.607, or 985.4815 register at the Pinellas County Sheriff's office following the process set forth in Florida Statutes § 775.21, forty-eight (48) hours prior to arrival at a vacation rental, regardless of the length of stay.

A vacation rental owner and/or responsible person shall comply with Florida Statutes § 775.215 pertaining to the distance separation of homes with a sexual offender/predator residing within the vacation rental and any business, school, child care facility, park, playground, or other places where children regularly congregate.

Failure to comply with this section shall, in addition to the institution of a code violation action, result in the revocation of the vacation rental's business tax receipt and vacation rental registration.
