PICKETT HORSE CLUB

Our meeting for November 15th was called to order by club President Les Achterberg.

November 13th was the clubs turn to serve the Country Breakfast, we served approx. 118 people. It was great to see everyone and some new faces.

In a continuous report from last month on a couple of the clubs newest members Kia Liptow & Kennedy Hoch with the Ripon High School Equestrian Team, along with their coaches Joan & Quinn Silloway, the Ripon High School Equestrian Team won it's first-ever State Championship! The team defeated 11 other teams in Division C at the Wisconsin Interscholastic Horsemanship Association State finals in Madison , October 28th-30th.

Kai Liptow received 1st place in Hunt Seat Showmanship & Reinsmanship, 3rd place in Hunt Seat Equitation, 6th place in Western Horsemanship, 7th place in Western Showmanship & 9th place in the Two-Person relay.

Kennedy Hoch received 1st place in Hunter Hack Equitation, Hunt Seat Bareback Equitation and Western Bareback Equitation, 2nd place in Hunt Seat Showmanship, 4th place in Trail, 8th place in Western Showmanship & 9th place in the Two-Person Relay.

Congratulations to the entire team!!

Birthday Blessing's to Alice Rasumssen on the 5th.

There will be no meeting for the month of December
Members mark your calendars!

Anyone interested in joining should contact our club President, Les Achterberg at 920.410.4142 for more info.

In closing, in our small club we have all been through many personal trials and tribulations again this year and at the end of the day we have many things to be grateful for. Living with a grateful heart gives you the opportunity to celebrate the goodness in life and to see goodness in others. As the saying goes...."because no one will ever understand your love for that horse smell or the Peace it brings to your soul". It's the Peace that a horse can bring to your soul when everything seems to be closing around you.

Merry Christmas & God Bless you!

Reporter, June Achterberg
