Members Excused: Cooper Buck, Holly Day, Brooklyn Yee

Advisors in Attendance: Elsie Buck, Melissa Morley, Kim Staker, Remington Whiting

Business:

1. Mayor Callie Phillips called the meeting to order at 4:18 pm; Ella Rodabough provided a thought and Peter May led the Pledge of Allegiance.
2. Approval of Minutes. Peter May made a Motion to Approve the Minutes of the September 28, 2023 Youth City Council meeting as presented. Bo Bartholomew Seconded the Motion. Voting was unanimous in favor of the Motion. Peter May made a Motion to Approve the Minutes of the November 9, 2023 Youth City Council meeting with changes. Clair Halling Seconded the Motion. Voting was unanimous in favor of the Motion.
3. Budget Review – Drew Farley presented the budget review. The council started the year with $5,500. $813.94 was spent on the retreat, and $1,269.52 for Christmas on Onion Street.
4. Christmas on Onion Street – Members reviewed what went well and what could be improved for next year. Some things to improve included fixing or replacing some costumes, reserving and ordering things sooner, and getting nametags and shirts for all members.
5. Easter – There was discussion on how much candy to order and what day to have it. Members decided to hold it on March 23, 2024.
6. Open Position – Mayor Pro Tem Noah Peterson resigned from youth city council, so his position will need to be filled. Members interested in the position will be able to apply and be interviewed, and one will be appointed at a future meeting.
7. Day of the Legislature – Members who attended the Day of Legislature discussed how it went. They also discussed what else we could do instead. The council could go to a legislature meeting to see how they go. We could also have adults go to the Day of Legislature and teach the youth about it afterwards.
8. Other Business:
 - a. Logo Update – The council would like to get shirts and sweatshirts with the new logo on front and back by Easter.

b. There was discussion on starting applications for next year and how to advertise for it. We will have new members come in this year to shadow current members and learn about their responsibilities.

8. Next meeting – February 8

9. Adjournment. Peter May made a Motion to Adjourn at 5:00 pm. Drew Farley Seconded it. Voting was unanimous in favor of the Motion.

The foregoing was approved by the officers of the West Bountiful Youth City Council on April 11, 2024 by unanimous vote of all members present.
