Business:

1. Mayor Drew Farley called the meeting to order at 5:02 pm; Bo Bartholemew provided a thought and Peter May led the Pledge of Allegiance.
2. Approval of Minutes – Clairra Halling made a Motion to Approve the Minutes of the June 18, 2024, Youth City Council meeting with the following edits: “Members Excused: Bo Bartholemew, Emily May, Brooklyn Yee, Zoe Johnson, Josie Thurgood” “e. When to decorate the float – The council is going to decorate the float Monday July 1st at 10 am.” Peter May Seconded the Motion. Voting was unanimous in favor of the Motion.
3. Carnival / Safety Fair review – Overall members agreed that both events went well. Different methods of getting food during these events were discussed, including to get pizza instead of food vouchers next year. The council talked about what could be worked on next year. (Sign-ups for the Safety fair go until 9 pm, end of the line signs)
4. Bylaws – Mayor Drew Farley mentioned that the bylaws on the West Bountiful Youth City Council webpage need to be updated to current bylaws.
5. Trunk-or-Treat help – Officer Horstman asked for the members’ opinions on activities to do at the Trunk-or-Treat. Ideas brought up included a spook alley, and Halloween activities. Members were asked to provide ideas at the next meeting.
6. Retreat – Mayor Drew Farley asked members for ideas for the West Bountiful Youth City Council Annual Retreat. The main activities mentioned include an escape room, and a restaurant to have lunch and training in. Members were asked to complete a survey to pick the date of this activity and a restaurant. Members were asked to come to the next meeting with ideas for the retreat.
7. Thank you card for Callie – Members all signed a thank you card for last year’s mayor, Callie Phillips.

8. Shirts / Hoodies – Members without Youth City Council t-shirts or hoodies were asked to stay after the meeting to collect them.
9. Future Activities
 - a. Christmas on Onion Street – Christmas on Onion Street will be held at West Bountiful Park on December 7th or 14th
